Returns and Exchanges

This policy explains how to return or exchange something you bought at Kopbal and how refunds work. It applies to all orders delivered in the Netherlands, Belgium and the rest of the European Union.

Return window

You can return unprinted items within 30 days after delivery, without giving a reason. The 30 days start on the day the parcel is delivered, as shown in the carrier's tracking.

Items must be unworn and unwashed, with the tags still attached. Shirts that have been worn or washed can be refused or refunded partially.

Printed shirts

Shirts with a name or number printed on them are made for you, so they can't be returned or exchanged, unless they arrive damaged or the print is wrong. Check the name, number and size carefully before you order.

Exchanging a size

Is an unprinted shirt too small or too big? Open a support ticket within 30 days with your order number and the size you need. We send the new size as soon as we receive the old one, and the exchange is free in the Netherlands and Belgium. Exchanges depend on stock: if your size is sold out, we refund you instead.

How to return an item

1. Open a support ticket or ask the assistant, and mention your order number.

2. You receive a free return label by email within one working day. Returns within the Netherlands go with PostNL, returns within Belgium and Luxembourg with bpost. Customers in other EU countries pay the return shipping themselves.

3. Pack the item and hand the parcel in at a drop-off point within 14 days of receiving the label.

Refunds

We refund the item price, including the original shipping cost if you return the entire order. The refund goes to the original payment method within 5 working days after we receive the return.

If you cancel an order before it has shipped, you get a full refund straight away and don't have to return anything.

Damaged, wrong or misprinted items

If an item arrives damaged, you received the wrong club or size, or the name or number is printed wrongly, report it within 14 days of delivery. Include your order number and a photo. We send a free replacement or reprint, or give a full refund, whichever you prefer. You don't need to send the item back unless we ask for it.
